MARKETING PROGRAMS

Walla Walla Wine @ Seattle and Portland (February)

What is the program?

Grand tasting events for member wineries to pour for trade, media, and consumers in our two largest PNW markets.

Goal Priorities:

1. Provide a platform for member wineries to build relationships with trade and media.
2. Expose consumers to member wineries and inspire visitation to the Walla Walla Valley within the next year.

Reveal Walla Walla Valley (April event, year-round program)

What is the program?

A wine-futures auction consisting of small, one-of-a-kind Walla Walla Valley wines produced by member wineries.

Goal Priorities:

1. Provide a national stage for member wineries to build relationships with wholesalers and retailers.
2. Create income for additional WWVWA marketing programs.

Celebrate Walla Walla Valley Wine (June)

What is the program?

Celebrate Walla Walla Valley Wine is the region's signature wine event held annually in June. The event series is structured to showcase a different wine varietal each year, historically focusing on Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, and Merlot. Over the course of three days, the events demonstrate how wines can vary among the world's leading regions resulting from different growing conditions, winemaking styles, and vineyards through special tastings of rare vintage wines, educational seminars, and one-of-a-kind winemaker dinners.

Additionally, the Wine Alliance plans an in-depth, four-day familiarization tour for invited media in conjunction with the three-day consumer events. Participating media are given the opportunity to visit vineyards, private tastings and dinners, and meet community officials and other important principles in the local food and wine industry.

Goal Priorities:

1. Educate consumers and media about the Walla Walla Valley wine region as an internationally acclaimed wine brand.
2. Show the depth and breadth of quality in the Walla Walla Valley.

WWander Walla Walla Valley Wine (Fall/Winter)

What is the program?

WWander Walla Walla Valley Wine is a curated winemaker itinerary series available to consumers during late fall and early winter. The itineraries are created by local winemakers and they focus on experiencing Walla Walla as they do: through the things they love to drink, eat and enjoy in and around this celebrated wine region. WWander is funded by the City of Walla Walla's lodging tax grant.

Goal Priorities:

1. Encourage visitors to Walla Walla during the "shoulder season".
2. Showcase personalities of wineries and the people behind the brands with authentic programming.
