OUR MISSION

The mission of the Walla Walla Valley Wine Alliance (WWVWA) is to build an internationally acclaimed Walla Walla Valley wine brand among consumers, media, and trade by providing marketing programs on behalf of member wineries, vineyards, and partners.

The WWVWA functions as the leading informational resource for consumers, media, and members of the trade interested in learning more about the valley's wine industry.

PARTNER MEMBERS

Corporate and hospitality businesses whose values and business practices align with those of the WWVWA are encouraged to support the Walla Walla Valley wine region through partner membership. Partner members seek to enhance and elevate the Walla Walla Valley wine region through mutually successful marketing relationships. Partner members seek short- and long-term success of not only their businesses, but also the WWVWA and our membership of wineries and vineyards.

We look forward to having you join the membership and help grow the Walla Walla Valley wine brand! This guide is meant to provide an overview of Walla Walla Valley Wine Alliance (WWVWA) marketing programs to help you understand our mission and maximize your member benefits through active participation.
