

A DOG'S DAY

CREATED BY: WINSTON, ALTON WINES

A LITTLE ABOUT ME

"Hi, I'm Winston—aka Meatball—resident golden retriever and professional greeter at Alton Wines. While I take my job very seriously, I also know how to have a good time. I've rounded up my favorite dog-friendly spots across the Walla Walla Valley so you and your humans can enjoy a day of wine, food, and tail-wagging fun."

9:00 AM | COFFEE AT CARTE COFFEE

Start your morning downtown at Carte Coffee, a sleek café with exciting brews and a warm, welcoming staff. While your human grabs their signature drink, you'll be outside enjoying the breeze—and if you flash your best "please scratch me" look through the window, there's a good chance you'll earn some extra attention. I've had plenty of luck with that move.

10:00 AM | SNACK STOP AT THE MILL

Next up, The Mill. Humans are always going on about the Hawaiian salad, pimento cheese sandwiches, and those smoothies—but I'm here for one reason: Jen. If you know, you know. "Treat Lady" always has something special for her four-legged visitors. Whether you're grabbing lunch to fuel a day of wine tasting or sticking around for a patio hang, this spot is perfect for both lounging and lobbying for one more snack.

11:30 AM | SHOPPING AT WAGS TO WHISKERS

Walk off that lounge session with a visit to Wags to Whiskers, a locally owned pet boutique stocked with treats, toys, and gear. Whether you're in the market for a new leash, a gourmet biscuit, or a squeaky toy shaped like an octopus, this is the place to find it.

12:15 PM | VINEYARD VIEWS & ROOM TO RUN AT TRANCHE ESTATE

At Tranche, there's room to roam—and I take full advantage. While my human settles in with a tasting of their expressive Rhône-style wines, I'm out on the lawn sniffing the breeze, finding the perfect shady spot, or just watching the vines sway. If you come by on a Friday or Saturday evening, you'll catch live music too. It's lively, it's dog-friendly, and it's one of my favorite ways to spend golden hour.

2:00 PM | BEER + PATIO HANG AT FIVE DOLLAR RANCH

Alright, I'm more dynamic than just a winery dog—I dabble in breweries too. And so do my people. Five Dollar Ranch, a Southside spot is one of Joe and Ashley's (my people) favorites. They love the laid-back vibe, the IPA options, and the way everyone's treated like a regular (even those of us on paws). The owner, Josh, has something truly special going on there.

4:00 PM | BACK TO WORK AT ALTON WINES

Alton Wines is where I do my best work: greeting guests, posing for photos, and adding just the right amount of charm to every tasting. The architecture is beautiful, the vibe is easygoing, and the wines are meant to be enjoyed—not just admired. Throw in some unbeatable views and a friendly face like mine, and you've got the perfect place to end your day. Heads up! I'm the only dog allowed at Alton for now. Perks of the job, I guess. But don't worry, I'll hold it down for the rest of us.

DOG-FRIENDLY ACCOMMODATIONS

If you're sticking around (lucky you), here are a few of my favorite dog-friendly stays: The FINCH is downtown and walkable—great for those early morning strolls to Pioneer Park. But there are many more, head to Visit Walla Walla's website for a full list of pet friendly hotels!

OTHER DOG FRIENDLY WINERIES IN THE VALLEY

It's true—dogs are more than welcome in the Walla Walla Valley. Many tasting rooms roll out the red carpet for four-legged friends, including Aluvé, Amavi Cellars, Caprio Cellars, Dunham Cellars, Echolands Winery, Foundry Vineyards, KINHAVEN, L'Ecole N° 41, Pepper Bridge Winery, The Walls Vineyards, VITAL Wines, and Woodward Canyon. Each has its own pet policy, so be sure to make a quick call or check their website for the most up-to-date information before your visit.

DOGGY DAY CARE

There may come a time when the humans head somewhere I can't tag along (not my favorite, but I get it). When that happens, I give two paws up to Wishbone. It's a local, kennel-free daycare where dogs get to play, nap on comfy raised beds, hang out outside, and get plenty of love from the staff. It's safe, fun, and honestly—kind of a dog's dream day. Just make sure your human calls ahead to book a spot!

WANT TO SEE ME ON MY PERFECT DAY IN THE VALLEY?

Come along for the ride! Watch my reel to see the tail wags, treats, and that only in magic from my point of view. It's dog-approved, human-endorsed, and 100% Walla Walla Valley. .
